

Watching a space

When you watch a space, you are notified by email whenever content is added to it or updated.

To start watching a space,

1. Click the "Browse" menu to the left of your name and choose Advanced.
2. In the left-hand panel, click 'Start watching this space'. This link will be replaced with a new link to 'Stop watching this space'.

To stop watching a space,

1. Click the "Browse" menu to the left of your name and choose Advanced.
2. In the left-hand panel, click 'Stop watching this space'. This link will be replaced with a new link to 'Start watching this space'.

Tip

You can also stop watching a space via the 'Watches' tab under your user profile settings. See Managing Watches.
